KUCHING: UCSI University will be holding a Symposium of Tourism Studies on the current trends and issues in the tourism industry tomorrow and Thursday from 9.00am to 4.30pm.

This is the first International Symposium organised by the Faculty of Hospitality and Tourism Management of UCSI University to provide a platform for academicians and industry players to meet and discuss on the current trends and issues in tourism industry.

This symposium attracts academicians who are also tourism experts in their respective countries such as China, Uzbekistan and Malaysia.

Apart from that, this symposium is also to mark the research collaboration between UCSI University and a Branch of the Russian Economic University after named after G.V. Plekhanov in Tashkent.

This symposium will further enhance students’ learning experience in Leisure and Recreation Management, organising and managing events. This will enable students to gain exposure through a real life event besides their classroom simulations.

UCSI University, Sarawak Campus houses the Faculty of Hospitality and Tourism Management (FHTM) and Centre for Pre-U Studies.

This campus provides niche programmes to train all its students in many areas of hospitality and tourism as well as hone their management skills and teamwork.

For more information on the symposium, please contact the university at 082-455 255 or drop by to the campus at Jalan Tun Jugah.
