KUCHING: UCSI University will offer more than RM18 million in financial assistance to reward students who excel in their examinations this year.

A press statement yesterday said the annual scholarships aim to fuel students’ dreams so they can realise their true potential and go beyond their expectations throughout their learning journey at UCSI.

The major scholarships are UCSI University Trust Scholarship, Tan Sri Ahmad Razali (TSAR) Merit Scholarship, and UCSI University Trust Sport Bursary.

UCSI University Trust Scholarships offer a full or partial tuition fee waiver throughout students’ undergraduate studies at UCSI University and are mainly for students who have done well academically in their Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia (SPM) or Sijil Tinggi Persekolahan Malaysia (STPM).

TSAR is only open to Malaysian students enrolled in any degree programme at the university and provides a full fee waiver, on-campus accommodation, monthly allowance, books, and laptop allowance for the duration of undergraduate study.

Any Malaysian state or national athlete enrolled in any UCSI University foundation, diploma or degree programmes will be offered the UCSI University Trust Sports Bursary.

Students from rural areas of Malaysia, low income families, single parent families with low income backgrounds and other similar difficult situations can apply for the UCSI University Trust Financial Assistance Scheme to further their studies in programmes offered by the university.

UCSI University currently offers undergraduate programmes in fields such as Foundation Studies, Hospitality and Tourism programmes, Pharmacy, Medicine, Nursing, Optometry, Engineering, Architecture, Food Science and Nutrition, Biotechnology, Psychology, Mass Communication, Fashion Design, Management, Accounting and Finance, Music, Business Administration, Marketing, and Business Information Systems.

Registration for the May intake is in progress.

For further information call 082-455255 or log on to www.ucsiuniversity.edu.my.