

UCSI collaborates with Hope Place to raise funds for charity

KUCHING: UCSI University Sarawak Campus is holding a fundraising food fair in collaboration with Hope Place at its campus in Sejingkat here from July 3 to 7.

According to its press statement, this is the first time they collaborated to raise funds for charity.

All the proceeds will be donated to Hope Place.

UCSI students will also volunteer to be at Hope Place on July 19 to deliver food to the needy.

The public are welcome to visit the food fair from 10am to 3pm.

With more than 170 families on its list, Hope Place carries out deliveries once every two months.

Hope Place founder Kelvin Wan (third right) greets UCSI University Sarawak Campus chief operating officer Mukvinder Sandhu at the launch of the food fair.

More information can be obtained by calling 013-567 2775 or their office at 082-683378 which opens from 8.30am to noon and 2pm to 5pm Mondays to Fridays, and 9am to noon on Saturdays.

Donors can ask for a receipt from staff at Hope Place.

UCSI University students set up stalls selling various types of food.