

Malaysia Day marks the celebration of the formation of the Malaysian Federation in 1963. This day symbolises unity and harmony; the joining together of states in one accord to form a collective identity. Even amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, we must be thankful that we live in an independent, peaceful and sovereign nation.

On this Malaysia Day, let us pause and reflect on what does it mean to be Malaysian. We yearn for progress in its true form while respecting and embracing ethnic diversity. That is what makes Malaysia Truly Asia. Malaysians are in general kind, compassionate and polite. Let us move forward with the determination and drive to succeed in everything we do as Malaysians.

Be sure to practise physical distancing and wear masks as well as follow other safety precautions. Remember, the saying, together we stand, divided we fall!

Take care and be safe.
