

Supported by

Malaysian Association of Public Advocacy for Nature (MAPAN) invites researchers to participate in:

MAPAN ESG INDUSTRY AND ACADEMIC SUMMIT 2026

28 TO 29 JULY 2026

WORLD TRADE CENTRE, KUALA LUMPUR

MAPAN ESG Summit 2026: Call for Paper Presentations From Reporting to Real-World Impact

28-29 July 2026 | World Trade Centre, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

Bridging academia and industry to address Malaysia's National Sustainability Reporting Framework (NSRF). Seeking cutting-edge research and case studies across five key ESG tracks to drive real-world impact.

Critical Submission Timeline

April 30, 2026:
Final Extended Abstract
Deadline

Acceptance Notification:
By May 15, 2026

May 30, 2026:
Full Paper Submission

Deadline for all accepted authors to submit complete manuscripts for conference proceedings.

July 20, 2026:
Final Corrected Paper

Final date for submission of revised papers following peer feedback.

Key Research Tracks & Recognition

Green Financing & Climate Disclosures

- Focuses on Halal Industry, ESG accounting, ethics, and climate-related risk adaptation strategies.

Innovation & Supply Chain Integration

- Covers ESG in higher education, Fintech tools, and Scope 3 supply chain readiness.

High-Impact Publication Opportunities

Outstanding papers will be nominated for Scopus Q1 partner journals and edited books.

Deadline for abstract:
30 APRIL 2026

SCAN QR
FOR REGISTRATION AND
MORE INFORMATION