

Objectives

- To be an in-house studio serving any creative content for the university.
- To provide rental services for local and international production houses or companies.
- To enhance the skills and knowledge of UCSI students and the players in the creative industry.

About us

The Media Broadcasting Centre (MBC) is one of UCSI's latest business strategies that caters to the professional creative industry. It aims to achieve your broadcasting goals through its high-quality equipment ranging from video and recording studio, photography, to casting, and other related workshops. Our studios help execute the most demanding creative concepts and ideas, including colour keying (green screen).
